

[ACCESS]

[Wireless]

Whether your business is seeking high-speed connections, data networking, or Internet redundancy, ILAP has a wireless solution designed for your business. This cost effective solution offers competitive pricing compared to traditional wired services such as fibre optic, copper, and cable.

This symmetrical service provides businesses with speeds from 1 Mbps to over 10 Mbps, allowing for fast downloads and uploads of small and large files.

FEATURES

Advanced wireless technology

Available in remote and non-wired regions or part of Internet redundancy plan

Nationwide coverage

Connect central branch and remote locations

Faster implementation than other carriers

Connections can be setup in days

1Mbps to 10Mbps bandwidth throughput (dedicated and burstable)

Service configurable to your organizations changing bandwidth needs

Symmetrical bandwidth

Ideal for client-side hosting and bi-directional data transfers

7x24 monitoring of service

Ensure peak performance of connection

Connection supported by state of the art datacentre

Increased reliability and performance of service offering.

Net Centre Access

Complete online account management capabilities.

ILAP will gladly provide you with pricing and information on any equipment necessary for your business connection. Please contact an ILAP Account Executive at 416-250-5600 to further discuss your requirements.

Contact an ILAP Account Executive today for more information at 416.250.5600

